

Health Care

Owns and manages geriatric healthcare facilities. The Company completed an initial public offering in July 1997, and was subsequently acquired by Hilltopper Holding Corp. in June 2000.

Distributes consumable medical and surgical supplies, diagnostic equipment, and pharmaceutical-related products to physicians throughout the Southeast.

Owns and manages geriatric healthcare facilities. The Company completed an initial public offering in July 1997, and was subsequently acquired by Hilltopper Holding Corp. in June 2000.

Revenue cycle management company providing complete and accurate electronic claims transaction solutions to healthcare payers and providers.

Provides fully integrated, out-sourced drug development and biomanufacturing services to the pharmaceutical and biotechnology industries.

Provider of physician services to patients in long-term care facilities on behalf of managed care plans and skilled nursing facility operators.

Offers molecular diagnostic tests primarily in the oncology market.

Provides physician-prescribed remote and ambulatory cardiac monitoring services. Acquired by CardioNet in 2007.

Specialty pharmaceutical company focused on the gastrointestinal market. QOL sold its Nascobal drug to Par Pharmaceutical (NYSE: PRX) in March 2009.

Develops and manages surgery centers throughout the United States. The Company completed an initial public offering in February 2004. (NASDAQ: SMBI)

Largest freestanding provider of prepaid dental plans in the United States. The Company completed an initial public offering in 1995, and was subsequently acquired by Protective Life in March 1998.

Communications / Technology

Provides integrated Document Management and Enterprise Content Management software solutions for efficient paperless documentation of records.

Provides telephone conferencing services. The Company was sold to West Corporation in March 2003.

Provides communications services to small businesses utilizing Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP). The Company completed an initial public offering in November 2005. (NASDAQ: CBEY)

Provides a broad range of telecommunications services. The Company completed an initial public offering in October 1997. (NASDAQ: ITCD).

Develops network management application software. The Company was sold to NetIQ in March 2000.

A telecommunication holding company with various operating businesses.

CAPITAL FOR GROWTH, A PARTNER FOR SUCCESS

Communications / Technology – cont.

A broadband systems operator providing cable television, Internet access and telephone services to secondary markets in the Southeast. (NASDAQ: KNOL)

Provides wireless backhaul solutions to cellular service carriers using fiber and licensed microwave.

A personal communications service (PCS) provider. The Company completed an initial public offering in February 1994 and was subsequently acquired by Deutsche Telekom in May 2001.

TxPort - Designs, manufactures and markets digital transmission equipment for the telecommunications industry. The Company was sold to Verilink in November 1998.

Operated and acquired AM and FM radio stations in mid-sized markets. The Company was sold to Jacor Communications, Inc. in February 1997.

An industry leader in optical broadband access systems. The Company was sold to Enablec Technologies in May 2008.

Grew to become the fourth-largest telephone carrier in the United States. The Company was sold to MCI Communications Corporation in August 1990.

Business Services

Provides integrated Document Management and Enterprise Content Management software solutions for efficient paperless documentation of records.

Provides prepaid phone card and stored value services to over 145,000 retail locations.

Provides communications services to small businesses utilizing Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP). The Company completed an initial public offering in November 2005. (NASDAQ: CBEY)

Provides specialized tank trucking services. The Company completed an initial public offering in 1994, was taken private in 1998 and completed a public offering in November 2003. (NASDAQ: QLTY)

Manages stored value programs and provides processing services to large companies and their employees.

Provides DVD and CD replication and mastering services. Acquired by management through a recapitalization in 2005.

Revenue cycle management company providing complete and accurate electronic claims transaction solutions to healthcare payers and providers.

Provides wireless backhaul solutions to cellular service carriers using fiber and licensed microwave.

Data center colocation service provider targeting small and mid-sized businesses.

CAPITAL FOR GROWTH, A PARTNER FOR SUCCESS

Financial Services

A community bank holding company, which acquired banks in small Texas towns. The Company was sold to First Interstate in March 1994.

Provides prepaid phone card and stored value services to over 145,000 retail locations.

Multi-bank holding company that currently owns Florida Bank, Bank of North Florida, Bank of Tallahassee and Bank of Sarasota.

A community bank holding company which has multiple locations in Texas. The Company was sold to Prosperity Bancshares in November 2003.

Manages stored value programs and provides processing services to large companies and their employees.

Operates two businesses: National Quick Sale, providing a web-based hub to facilitate 'short sales' of delinquent mortgages; and REO Sentinel, providing a 24-hour monitoring solution for vacant properties.

Consumer

Owens and operates fitness centers in the Southeast, Midwest and Mid-Atlantic.

Operated movie theaters in small and medium-sized markets in the Southeast, Midwest and Northeast. The Company was acquired by Cinemark in October 1989.

Operates a chain of casual dining steakhouse restaurants as well as Carrabba's Italian restaurants. The Company completed an initial public offering in 1991 and was taken private in 2007.

Operates movie theaters in small and medium-sized markets. The Company completed an initial public offering in 1993, was taken private in 1998 and completed a public offering as Regal Entertainment Group in May 2002. (NYSE: RGC).

