

Owns and manages geriatric healthcare facilities. The Company completed an initial public offering in July 1997, and was subsequently acquired by Hilltopper Holding Corp. in June 2000.

A community bank holding company which has multiple locations in Texas. The Company was sold to Prosperity Bancshares in November 2003.

A community bank holding company, which acquired banks in small Texas towns. The Company was sold to First Interstate in March 1994.

Provides specialized tank trucking services. The Company completed an initial public offering in 1994, was taken private in 1998 and completed a public offering in November 2003. (NASDAQ: QLTY)

Provides communications services to small businesses utilizing Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP). The Company completed an initial public offering in November 2005. (NASDAQ: CBEY)

Provides DVD and CD replication and mastering services. Acquired by management through a recapitalization in 2005.

Owns and manages geriatric healthcare facilities. The Company completed an initial public offering in July 1997, and was subsequently acquired by Hilltopper Holding Corp. in June 2000.

Operates a chain of casual dining steakhouse restaurants as well as Carrabba's Italian restaurants. The Company completed an initial public offering in 1991 and was taken private in 2007.

Develops network management application software. The Company was sold to NetIQ in March 2000.

Provides physician-prescribed remote and ambulatory cardiac monitoring services. Acquired by CardioNet in 2007.

Provides telephone conferencing services. The Company was sold to West Corporation in March 2003.

A personal communications service (PCS) provider. The Company completed an initial public offering in February 1994 and was subsequently acquired by Deutsche Telekom in May 2001.

Provides a broad range of telecommunications services. The Company completed an initial public offering in October 1997. (NASDAQ: ITCD).

Operated movie theaters in small and medium-sized markets in the Southeast, Midwest and Northeast. The Company was acquired by Cinemark in October 1989.

A telecommunication holding company with various operating businesses.

Operates movie theaters in small and medium-sized markets. The Company completed an initial public offering in 1993, was taken private in 1998 and completed a public offering as Regal Entertainment Group in May 2002. (NYSE: RGC).

A broadband systems operator providing cable television, Internet access and telephone services to secondary markets in the Southeast. (NASDAQ: KNOL)

Operated and acquired AM and FM radio stations in mid-sized markets. The Company was sold to Jacor Communications, Inc. in February 1997.

CAPITAL FOR GROWTH, A PARTNER FOR SUCCESS

Previous Investments

Develops and manages surgery centers throughout the United States. The Company completed an initial public offering in February 2004. (NASDAQ: SMBI)

Largest freestanding provider of prepaid dental plans in the United States. The Company completed an initial public offering in 1995, and was subsequently acquired by Protective Life in March 1998.

Grew to become the fourth-largest telephone carrier in the United States. The Company was sold to MCI Communications Corporation in August 1990.

An industry leader in optical broadband access systems. The Company was sold to Enablence Technologies in May 2008.

TxPort - Designs, manufactures and markets digital transmission equipment for the telecommunications industry. The Company was sold to Verilink in November 1998.

